PRESS RELEASE

CHRISTINE CABAU WOEHREL APPOINTED CHAIR OF DUNKERQUE-PORT'S EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

48-year-old Christine Cabau Woehrel has just been appointed Chair of Dunkerque-Port's Executive Committee by a French Presidential Decree dated 14 March 2012.

She succeeds Martine Bonny, who was appointed General Inspector of the Sustainable Development Authority on 1 August 2011.

Since that date Stéphane Raison, Planning and Environment Director, has been interim Chair.

Christine Cabau Woehrel comes to Dunkerque-Port with many years of experience in maritime transport, acquired since 1987 in the CMA CGM Group. From 1988 she was in charge of the Red Sea, India-Pakistan and Asia-Mediterranean lines successively.

In 2000 she was appointed Central Director of the Asia / Mediterranean / Black Sea / Adriatic / Red Sea and Persian Gulf lines, a position she held until May 2011 within the world's third maritime transport group.
