CHRISTINE CABAU WOEHREL
MADE A KNIGHT OF THE FRENCH ORDER OF THE LÉGION D'HONNEUR

On Friday 5 July 2013, in the presence of many public figures, Michel Delebarre, Former Minister of State, Senator and Mayor of Dunkirk and a member of the Board of Trustees of Dunkerque-Port, conferred the Knighthood of the French Order of the Légion d'Honneur on Christine Cabau Woehrel, Chair of the Port's Executive Committee. In a decree issued by France's President on 31 December 2012, Ms Cabau Woehrel, formerly Director of the Asia-Mediterranean Lines at CMA CGM, was awarded the Knighthood of the Légion d'Honneur in recognition of her 25 years of service and of the experience and dedication she brings to the Port of Dunkirk. The ceremony was held at the Pavillon des Maquettes in Dunkerque-Port.

France's third-ranking port, Dunkirk is well known as a port handling heavy bulk cargoes for its numerous industrial installations. It has also built its reputation in other sectors such as cross-Channel RORO traffic to Great Britain, containers, fruit, etc. Classified as the seventh port of the North Europe Range which extends from Le Havre to Hamburg, Dunkirk is also the leading French port for ore and coal imports, France's leading port for containerised fruit imports, and the country's second-ranking port for trade with Great Britain.
